

KING'S RHYTHM CREW

Featuring...

KING'S RHYTHM CREW featuring..., Dutch top rhythm section backing up National and International "blues/roots" artists.

The King's Rhythm Crew, Ruud Weber (bass, lead vocals), Govert van der Kolm (keys, backing vocals) and Marlon Pichel (drums, backing vocals), started early 2018. Thanks to their connections from a past of backing up artist like Snowy White, Monster Mike Welch, David Gogo, Eugene Bridges, Candye Kane and others, the King's Rhythm Crew soon built their own name. Since then they've worked with artist like Matt Schofield, Kid Ramos, Scott Sharrard, Jon Amor, Hugh Coltman, JB Meijers, Alan Haynes, Danny Giles, Matt Taylor (RIP) and Sean Webster.

Master guitar player Matt Schofield agreed to play in the Netherlands only on the condition that the King's Rhythm Crew would be his backing band.

After a very successful beginning they decided to make it a regular project next to their own band King of the World. Three musicians that can play anything from old school to modern blues and more.
